“Working Together to Make a Safer Community”
ACT Emergency Services Conference

Saturday 17 October 2009

Theo Notaris Multicultural Centre

2nd Floor, 180 London Circuit, Civic Square 2601

10.00am – 4.00pm

Followed by light refreshments

Conference aims

To improve communication between the ACT Emergency Services and CALD communities and to:

- Recognise, support and celebrate cultural diversity within the ACT
- Identify the information needs and knowledge gaps between CALD communities and emergency services
- Communicate the emergency management principals of Preparedness, Prevention, Response and Recovery (PPRR)
- Increase awareness of the roles and responsibilities of emergency services and highlight contact information
 - Showcase achievements to date with the CALD Program

The conference will bring together CALD communities and emergency service officers with organisations who have a role to play in emergency management. The conference will focus on increasing risk awareness and resilience which will in turn lead to increased mutual respect, understanding and acceptance between the participants.

Supported by the Department of Disability Housing and Community Services and the Australian Federal Police.
